WISE AND OTHERWISE.

"Did you give up anything during Lent?" asked the parson. "Well, I guess yes," replied the worldly man. "I gave up two weeks' salary for my wife's Easter bonnet."—Indianapolis Star.

"I consider my own health and comfort," remarked the intensely self-conceited person. "Public opinion means nothing to me." "Well," replied Uncle Ben, pensively, "dar is sumpin' jes' about like dat de matter wif my mule."—Washington Star.

"Be cheerful. You can always look about you and see people worse off than you are." "That's true. And when the bill collectors come dunning me I can always tell them of a lot of people that have more money than I have, but the trouble is they won't go to them."—Detroit Free Press.

Badness of memory everyone complains of, but nobody of the want of judgment.—La Rouchefoucauld.

"Pa, doesn't precipitation mean the same as settling?" "It does in chemistry, my son; but in business you'll find that many persons in settling
